FOREWORD

The purpose of this handbook is information. Names and addresses of persons related to the programs and institutions of the General Conference Mennonite Church are listed on these pages.

You will find the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of congregations and their pastors; officers of institutions; and conference administrative personnel. This information—and much more—is for your use when and as you need it.

Statistical information about churches, such as membership and financial giving, may be found in the last section of this book.

Addresses were current when the Handbook of Information went to press.

Heinz Janzen
General Secretary

INTRODUCTION

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE MENNONITE CHURCH is an entity composed of member congregations in North and South America. It is incorporated under the statutes of the state of Kansas in the U.S.A. Churches have united to form a Conference of Mennonites in Canada and several district conferences in the United States based largely on geographical location.

The delegate body which meets triennially is elected by individual churches on the basis of one delegate per thirty members. At the triennium session delegates elect three officers: president, vice-president, and secretary. The delegate body also elects members to program commissions, a seminary board, and a division of administration. These bodies meet annually in what is referred to as a Council of Commissions. It is at these sessions that action programs are planned and the annual financial budget is adopted.

Two subsidiary corporations, Church Extension Services and Mutual Aid Services, are incorporated under the statutes of the state of Kansas and deal with specific areas of program work.

A number of institutions and organizations, such as colleges, hospitals, Mennonite Central Committee, and Congo Inland Mission, bear a functional relationship to the conference through the commissions. These institutions and organizations are located in a separate section of this publication.

Institutions recognized as "General Conference" are not a part of the corporate structure of the General Conference Mennonite Church. They have their own corporate structures as set up under the statutes of the states in which they are located.

In this year's directory of ministers there are three sections: (1) leading and assistant ministers of churches, (2) ordained personnel performing pastoral functions and reported by the local church in which they are members, and (3) ministers who were active in the pastoral ministry at the time of their retirement (usually age 65 but not always).

Names are listed alphabetically under each section. In the leading ministers' list, the home telephone number and the church the minister serves are given.

If a pastor is not ordained nor officially registered as a General Conference minister, this is indicated.

Some families are creative.

Family worship happens at appropriate times and meaningful ways without a guide to follow.

Some families need a guide.

New insight and fresh stimulation come as some type of family worship guide is used.

Some families . . . HAVE NO FAMILY WORSHIP.

REJOICE! the new family worship guide, can help your family.

REJOICE! contains:

Worship guidelines for families with children.
(Lower Junior and Junior Sunday school outlines are followed)

Worship guidelines for youth/adult.
(Uniform Sunday school outlines are followed)

Prayer requests that focus on specific persons and needs that will add new dimensions to your understanding of the work of the Mennonite Church. Several feature articles each quarter that challenge home life.

REJOICE is produced cooperatively by the Conference of Mennonites in Canada, the General Conference Mennonite Church, the Mennonite Brethren Church, and the Mennonite Church.

Subscription rates: Bulk .50 per quarter
Individual .55 per quarter/Annual $2.20
